

Tips for Interview Prep To Get Your Dream Job

Interviewing is hard, and with so much advice out there, it's hard to determine how to interview for success. Here are some tips to help you land your dream job:

IDENTIFY THE ROLES YOU WANT

People tend to be able to determine a dream salary, but don't often think about the day to day of jobs they'd like to have. Pinpoint the type of work you want to do, then start your search for roles that fit those wants.

CLEAN UP YOUR RESUME

Resumes are important as they represent you to the company. Look up resume formats typical for the roles you're applying for (you can also check out our MiM-approved Canva resume templates here) and use that to format yours.

LEVERAGE YOUR NETWORK... OR REACH OUT!

Leveraging those people you know to get your foot in the door is key to all industries. If that doesn't work, try cold messaging recruiters and talent sourcers on social media sites like LinkedIn with your resume and a message of interest.

PEER REVIEW YOUR RESUME

Oftentimes we may have a friend who also is in our industry that can lend a hand in making sure your resume lands the way it's supposed to for a recruiter's eyes.

LOOK UP THE COMPANY ON SOCIAL MEDIA

Companies have both current and former employees that can tell you of their time working there. Do you work to ensure that you're prepared when asked the "why do you want to work here?" question by looking them up on sites like Glassdoor, Fishbowl, etc.
